

PLANS

FRAME GRAPHIC ORGANIZER

Student Name:

Date:

Key Topic: Animal Adaptations: Camels

Audience: Classmates and Teacher

Goal: To learn how camels are built to survive harsh desert environments

Preview the topic, audience, and goals | List main ideas and details in The Frame G.O. | Assign numbers to order main ideas and details

1

Main idea 1

Camels store fat in their humps.

2

Main idea 2

Camels have protective body features.

3

Main idea 3

Camels drink lots of water.

Essential details:

1

The fat gives them energy.

1

Essential details:

Long eyelashes block sand.

1

Essential details:

They can drink 40 gallons at once.

2

It helps them go without food.

2

Nostrils can close in a sandstorm.

2

This helps them survive without water for days.

BIG IDEA: What is important to understand about this?

Camels have special body features that help them live in deserts.